Burger BASH

Why resort to fast food when you can DIY?

Prep and Cook 30 Mins / Serves 4

- 30g butter
- 2 (300g) brown onions, chopped finely
- 500g beef chuck steak, chopped coarsely
- 1 egg, beaten lightly
- 2/3 cup (50g) fresh breadcrumbs
- 1 tbsp Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
- 4 slices (75g) cheddar cheese
- 4 brioche burger buns
- 4 small butter lettuce leaves
- 75g dill pickles, sliced
- 2 small (180g) tomatoes, sliced

1. Heat butter in a large frying pan over medium heat. Add onions, cook, stirring, until golden and caramelised (about 15 mins). Cool.
2. Meanwhile, mince the beef in the Fusion Master in two to three batches, until coarsely minced.
3. Combine the beef, onions, egg, breadcrumbs and Worcestershire sauce in a large bowl. Season with salt and freshly ground black pepper, mix well. Form mixture into four patties.
4. Heat oil in a large frying pan over medium high heat; cook patties, turning once, until just cooked through. Top patties with cheese during the last minute of cooking and allow the cheese to melt.
5. Toast the cut sides of the buns. Divide lettuce, pickles and tomato among bun bases; finish with bun tops. W
